There was, however, another class of sacrifices, springing from a different motive, and with a different object in view ; for example, to obtain by means of an examination of the entrails of an animal an augury as to the issue of some enterprise, - a form of sacrifice which was held of great importance at the commencement of a battle ; or to sanctify the ratification of a treaty, or some important bargain between man and man ; or to obtain purification for some crime. After the woman finishes her paint job, her pet cat
